Elroy Hirsch to be Guest At Annual Don Grid Fete

By Don H. Andersen
El Don Editor

Elroy "Crazylegs" Hirsch, one of the greatest ends in professional football history and now sports director for the Union Oil Co., will be the guest speaker at the annual Don football banquet in the Student Union next Tuesday night. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

The annual banquet is co-sponsored by Santa Ana College and the Don Booster Club.

Morris Hanberg, president of the Booster Club, will be master of ceremonies of the banquet that will honor the Don football, cross-country, soccer, and water polo squads.

Highlighting the awards presentations will be the naming of four special awards to football players. Honors will be bestowed upon the Most Valuable Player, Most Inspirational Player, Most Improved Player, and the Dons of the Year. Head Coach Homer Beatty will make these presentations along with the awarding of letters to the members of the Don football club that finished with a 6-3 seasonal mark and 5-2 in the Eastern Conference.

Cliff Rothrock will present water polo letters, John Ward cross-country letters, and Dr. Remki Nokay the soccer awards.

Two of the four special winners of football awards last year have gone on to more glory on the gridiron this season.

Bob Gaiters, Most Valuable Player last year, played fullback for New Mexico State's Aggies and won All-Border Conference honors.

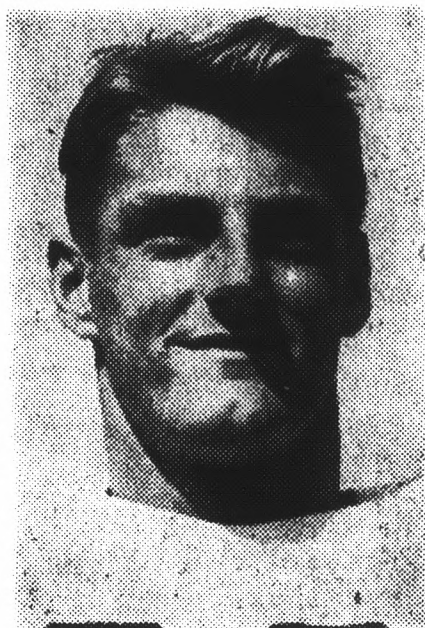

Halfback Pervis Atkins, Most Inspirational last year, also won All-Border honors at New Mexico and led the nation in rushing and scoring. Atkins was recently drafted by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Special guest Hirsch made his name on the gridiron performing for the same Rams club. He attended the University of Wisconsin and University of Michigan before embarking on his much heralded pro career.

Hirsch now spends his time as sports director for the Union Oil Co. and is a sports broadcaster

Tickets for next Tuesday's football banquet are on sale in Sky Dunlap's office at $1.50 per ticket. A limited number remain.

An added highlight of the banquet will be the announcement of Sky Dunlap's All-Scholastic team. A team to be made up of the top 11 players on the team by grade point average. Dean of Students Thomas Trawick will make the presentations and the candidates will be eligible for the scholastic athlete award presented at the Spring Sports Banquet to the athlete with the high grade point average.

Supreme Court Sets Precedence; Interprets AS Constitution

Setting a precedence by interpreting the constitution, the supreme court went against the recommendations of the student council to hold spring elections on January 6 and held the date to be December 16.

The controversy over the date arose from the wording of the phrase in question. "The Spring Semester representatives at large who shall be elected on the Wednesday of the third week before Fall Final Examinations." The court was asked to interpret the exact meaning of "Wednesday of the third week." There was some confusion because of the intervening Christmas vacation and the fact that exams start in the middle of the week.

In order for the candidates to have more time for their campaigns the council had desired the later date.

Final elections will be held December 18.

Members of the court who attended the special meeting called by chairman Jarrell Mauck were Kathy Kennedy, Preston Marsh, Dick Collins, and Shirley Henderson, student members; Thomas Trawick, William Corser and Carol Ruiz, faculty members.

HITTING THE HIGH ONE — Judy Miller, reaches for the high note pointed out by Joe Francis at recent rehearsal for next week's Christmas Assembly. The assembly will be held Thursday morning at 11 a.m. in Phillips Hall and is traditionally one of the year's most outstanding shows. (Photo by Servis)

Christmas Assembly to be Highlighted By Carols and Santa Claus Arrival

Traditional Christmas carols will highlight the annual Christmas Assembly, December 17, at 11 a.m. in Phillips Hall. The pre-yule vacation show will be done by the music department.

A vocal solo by Judy Miller, and a piano solo will add the variation to the song fest featuring the choir, the male ensemble, and the mixed choral group.

The production will be under the direction of James Vail. Last year's assembly was acclaimed as one of the most outstanding of the school year.

Santa Claus is also slated to put in an appearance.

Bissonnette Heads Program For Annual Bill of Rights Week

By Bob Walters

More than 100,000 students of Southland universities and colleges are pledging full support to the 1959 Bill of Rights Week campaign. AMS president, Don Bissonnette heads Santa Ana College's program in joining Americans across the nation commemorating this gifted heritage.

The purpose of Bill of Rights Week (Dec. 9-15) is not only to create an awareness of the freedom and liberty we cherish under these ten amendments of the Constitution, but also to encourage each student to evaluate these freedoms and what they mean to him.

Although awards and prizes will not cause an actual better understanding of the Bill of Rights it is felt that they add a little incentive for more students to probe and thus attain a desire to investigate more fully our ten golden rules.

A $500 cash scholarship is awarded to a student whose program is felt to have reached the most students, as well as displaying the best understanding of our individual responsibility for the maintaining of our freedom, also originality plays a big part in receiving the award.

The student to receive this award will be chosen by the winning institution from political science or history majors or from students active in student body affairs.

Other prizes include: first prize, $100 Savings Bond, 2nd prize, $50 Savings Bond, 3rd, 4th and 5th prizes, $25 Savings Bonds each. For the best editorial on the Bill of Rights in a campus newspaper, a permanent plaque will be presented to the college and a $25 Savings Bond to the writer. Also Savings Bonds are awarded to the five best essays submitted by students.

Bissonnette and his secretary, Linda Maxwell, have worked in lining up S.A.C.'s observance schedule. Passing out leaflets, having interviews, and class discussions make up only part of their program.

Highlighting the weeks observances was yesterday's assembly at which each of the ten amendments were enacted by various clubs on campus. Walt Whitman's "I Am An American" was the prologue for the assembly.

Don Band to Appear In Junior Rose Bowl

Santa Ana College's band is scheduled to appear at the fourteenth annual Junior Rose Bowl game and parade tomorrow in Pasadena.

The band, under the direction of Ted Nichols, will march with sixteen other bands from Southern California and participate in the parade, pre-game and half-time shows.

An annual trophy will be awarded this year to the outstanding Junior College band at the conclusion of the pre-game show.

Altogether 23 bands will be marching in the parade interspersed with cars carrying various dignitaries and drill teams from the colleges.

To start the day off all band masters will attend a band-masters breakfast at the Pasadena YMCA.

SAC BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT PAIRINGS

Serve - School and Self

Time has come for another Associated Students election and according to the early picture, this one like the others, will have a minimum number of candidates.

In elections concerning the entire student body six members of the student council are to be elected, three freshman and three sophomore representatives-at-large.

Early this semester when the present three sophomore office holders were elected there was a total of three candidates. No opposition for any candidate. This is not the way it should be.

Students can come up with lots of gripes if everything doesn't go the way they think it should, but when it comes time for another election where do these people bury themselves?

The student council is here to serve student and school. Why not get on the bandwagon and help serve?

By serving in student government an entire new perspective of college is opened before your eyes. Today's student council members are the national leaders of tomorrow.

Run for a student office and by doing so better yourself and your school.

Our American Heritage

We, today, do not realize or appreciate the importance of our American heritage.

We fail to consider the foresight and sacrifices made by great Americans in the early history of this great nation.

One thing we probably fail most of all to appreciate is a document adopted one March afternoon in 1791. This document labeled the Bill of Rights added to the Constitution forms the basis for the greatest government in the world.

Rather than point out our shortcomings let us merely list these rights which form our Bill of Rights.

Read these amendments carefully and ask yourself this question. "Where would I be today without these freedoms?" Then try to answer it.

The Bill of Rights . . . our American heritage.

- 1) Right to Freedom of religion, speech, press, assembly, and petition.
- 2) Right to keep and bear arms.
- 3) Rights on quartering soldiers.
- 4) Rights against unreasonable search and seizure.
- 5) Right to protection of persons and property.
- 6) Rights of persons accused of crime.
- 7) Right of trial by jury.
- 8) Right to protection against excessive fines, bail and punishment.
- 9) Rights not enumerated retained by the people.
- 10) Rights reserved to the states and the people.

Yes, the Bill of Rights, our American heritage. D.H.A.

HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY

JANICE BATES TAKES YULE SEASON CRUISE

"Mele Kalikimaka" is the wish extended to the friends of pretty Janice Bates, SAC songleader, this holiday season.

For the first time of her life, Janice will celebrate Christmas away from home aboard the Matsonia headed for Hawaii where she will join the newest state citizens in saying "Merry Christmas" in Hawaiian.

The Dr. Herbert Strosheim family of Santa Ana has invited Janice to travel with them to Honolulu for the yule season.

Miss Parties

"I'm so excited about going, yet I know I will miss the many Christmas and engagement parties which are planned for this year," Janice smiled.

Although the Strosheim group will not be on land for either Christmas Day or New Year's Day, they will enjoy many festive activities aboard ship.

Janice is looking forward to the many tours planned by the Matsonia Lines. She will also take the Pearl Harbor Cruise the end of December.

Packing Problem

"I'm taking summer clothes with me hoping that the predictors are accurate when they report a warm December for Hawaii. The real task of packing for the trip involves the decision of formals. Every night on the ship, passengers must dress formally for dinner," Janice said.

A warm Christmas isn't new for the pet songleader. Before moving to California, she resided in Miami Beach.

Hurricane Trouble

"The terrible hurricanes accompanied by balmy weather will always remain in my memories of the Miami climate. We experienced many a warm Christmas with the threat of home damage," Janice remembered.

... excited passenger

Friends expect to see Janice back on campus in January sporting a suntan and giving hula demonstrations.

College Carolers Cheer County Hospital Patients

Patients in Orange County hospitals who will be unable to spend Christmas at home will share the seasonal spirit with Santa Ana College choir members. Students will tour the wards singing familiar carols.

This project is one of the many scheduled for the music groups in December.

Carolers

Under the direction of Mr. James Vail, the five carolers, Carol Dunbar, Shari Lehman, Judy Miller, Robert Campbell, and Joe Francis, will present a tableau in "Miracle of the Bells," a Christmas fantasy to be presented tonight and tomorrow afternoon.

The complete choir will present secular and sacred music for the Santa Ana College students Dec. 13 during the annual Christmas assembly.

Highlighting the music portion of the assembly will be a solo by Judy Miller, "Jesus Bambino," and interpretative piano selection by Martha Thornton.

Rotary Club

Also on the choir's Christmas schedule is a program for the Orange Rotary Club. The same type of program will entertain American Legion members of Orange.

A large portion of the choir entertained Santa Ana Board of Education employees this week.

To complete the busy yule season, the entire choir will hold a Christmas party Dec. 18.

ers is "New Speaker's Treasury of Wit and Wisdom."

Many other new books may be found on the shelf adjacent to the check-out desk. Students need only to present their number six registration card.

Library Closes Next Week; New Books Available Now

"No, the library will not be open during Christmas vacation," said Miss Ruth Bradley, head librarian, "but students may check out as many books as they wish next week."

However, upon returning to school after the holidays, students will find a host of new books on the library shelves.

Those who enjoyed the movie and book, "Diary of Anne Frank," may read the remainder of her diary notes in "The Works of Anne Frank."

President Eisenhower recently encouraged Americans to read "What We Must Know About Communism," by Harry Overstreet. This book may be found in the "recent book" section of the library.

"St. Louis Woman," an autobiography of Helen Traubel's musical life, has been added to the Orange County Author's Section. Miss Traubel has established her residence in Laguna Beach.

Sports-minded students will find enjoyable reading in "A New Approach to Chess Mastery," by Fred Reinfeld, and "Modern Baseball Strategy," by Paul Richards.

Council Comments

By Carolyn Bridge

During the past three weeks, student council members have met, discussed, debated and settled nothing.

The results of Tuesday's meeting reverted back to the earlier dates this year when "Tomorrow we'll get organized" was the motto.

General reports consisted of Alan Leonard's financial statement, Ardith Munro's review of the Christmas Interlude and Willie Sprague's publicity announcement. Bill Mott gave special thanks to Miss Munro for the work on the Christmas dance.

Mott appointed a committee for the purpose of composing a job analysis book describing executive board jobs. The request for this committee came from a board member nearly two months ago.

When new business was called for, Miss Munro made a motion to the effect that the board grant Circle K permission to hold an after-game dance following the first Eastern Conference basketball game. The motion was carried.

Willie Sprague moved that the council accept the set of Publicity regulations that his committee had drawn up.

When going over the set of do's and don'ts, each councilman found a loophole. Apparently each member had his own idea as to how it should be changed. Confusion was the result.

Following a lengthy discussion, Leonard had the fortitude to refer the list of regulations to a committee for further study.

Just prior to adjournment time, Mr. Trawick made a request that $50 be put into the Bill of Rights fund for the payment of publicity. Miss Munro so moved and the motion was carried.

There was no debate on the motion for adjournment.

Business Majors Invited to Attend Special Meeting

Newly organized group, SAC Business club, invites all business majors to attend a special meeting Tuesday, Dec. 15 in A40 at 11:00.

Featured speaker for the morning will be Orville Knutsen, SAC economics instructor. His topic will be "Personal Requirements for Success in Business."

Officers for the new campus group are Bob Jameson, president; John Gunn, vice president; Judy Spencer, secretary; Jack Lentz, treasurer; Doug Dyer, ICC representative.

Sponsors are Neevil Helm and Richard Mannex.

AWS Spreads Holiday Cheer

Christmas cheer will be spread to needy families and patients of the Fairview Hospital geriatrics ward by members of the Santa Ana College Associated Women's Students this holiday season.

Linda Bright, AWS president, heads the annual project which secures clothing and food from college students. Collection stations are placed throughout the campus where club members and interested students may bring washable apparel or canned foods.

"The Miracle of the Bells," a children's Christmas fantasy, written and directed by Miss Susan Brenner, will be presented in Phillips Hall, December 11 at 7:30 and December 12 at 1:30 and 3:30.

Music and dancing artists from Orange County will assist the Santa Ana College Players in the presentation.

News Carried To Worldwide Radio Audience

By Janie Davis

Reaching round the world with the speed of light, the voices and code of the Santa Ana College radio call will soon be carried to a worldwide audience.

Work is underway on the 71-foot self-supporting steel tower. Much of the equipment will be assembled by the members of the Radio Club at SAC. The tower includes indicted elevation and rotation controls, standing adjacent to the new electronics laboratory in the campus Technical center.

The call WK6EQF will carry the story of SAC under the advisership of George Farrier, electronics chairman and head of the SAC Technical and Industrial Division.

"Employing the latest techniques in single side band communication, the state will be the ultimate in efficiency in communication at this time," explained Farrier.

RACES, the Radio Amateur Communications Emergency Service, will also be an active part of the Radio Club's services. These

Basketball Tourney Tonight

Renegades Meet Troy, Dons, Vikings Collide

By Jerry Wilcox
El Don Sports Editor

Three of California's outstanding junior college basketball powers plus the talented University of Southern California Freshman team are the participating squads in tonight's second annual Santa Ana College Invitational Basketball Tournament.

Bakersfield College and the USC Frosh get the ball rolling at 7:30 with the host Santa Ana Dons meeting Long Beach City College, last year's state champs, in the nightcap at approximately 9:00.

Tomorrow night the two losers will play for third place in the first game and the winners will compete for the tourney championship in the finale.

Dons Second

Last year's tournament was won by Hancock JC as the Dons finished second ahead of Bakersfield and Orange Coast.

Santa Ana's opponent tonight, Long Beach, is still recovering from the loss of star forward Aron Carmichael. The former Poly High flash who was an all CIF selection last year, was declared ineligible last week.

Coach Bob Hunt, in his first year as Viking head man, still has plenty of horses, however. Bob Thomas (6-0), a service vet from Boston who has averaged 13 points per game, and Casey Cox (6-3), the Vikings top scorer in the absence of Carmichael, will probably start at forwards.

Lyn Hodge, (6-3), a Poly grad who boasts a 13 point average, will get the nod at center.

At the guards will be Jim Mikhorn (5-9), an all City performer at Jordan last year, and James McCutcheon (6-0) from San Pedro.

Lineup

Boyd will probably go with Jon Brettman (6-2), the Dons' leading scorer, at one forward and either Lonnie Moore (6-3) or Milt Horton (6-4) at the other forward.

Veteran Gary Dutro (6-7) should get the call at center, but freshman Garnet Linzey (6-9) is also slated for early action.

At the guard will be Don Livingston (6-0), the Santa Ana floor general, and either letterman Phil Livesey (6-3) or Don McConnell (5-8).

Santa Ana Cagers Sport 3-2 Slate

Coach Bob Boyd and his Santa Ana College basketball team will take a 3-2 record against Long Beach City College in the Don Basketball Tournament tonight.

The Dons finished third in the Bakersfield Invitational Tourney last week by clouting Stockton in the final game, 72-59. Bakersfield won its own tournament.

Spotlight on Sports

By Jerry Wilcox

That grand old man Adolph Rupp, basketball's answer to the Rolls Royce, brought up a good point about the sad attendance while his Kentucky team was in Southern California last week end for engagements with the two local Universities, UCLA and USC. Rupp, who has seen more basketball wars than he cares to remember, lashed out at local sports fans for not packing the beautiful new Los Angeles Sports Arena to watch his Wildcats skirmish with the Bruins and Trojans.

Topped Bruins

For the record, Kentucky, the third ranked college court team at the time, edged past UCLA, 68-66, on Friday night while USC was bowing to Santa Clara, 64-61, in a double header before only 7,145 patrons.

It was after this game that the famed southern mentor complained about the poor crowd.

On Saturday night Rupp didn't pay much attention to the number of kibitzers present. He was too busy moaning about his team's poor showing on the boards that led to their 87-73 defeat at the hands of the Trojans. The Bruins completed the topsy turvy evening by downing Santa Clara, 75-73, in overtime. There were 8,024 at this game, a little better but far from satisfactory.

Sellouts

Rupp pointed out that if these two games had been played in Kentucky, both of them would have been sellouts.

Poor attendance at basketball games has been a problem that has always puzzled this corner. It is the same story at the high school, junior college, and college level. As soon as football is over people stop supporting their local teams.

It certainly cannot be that the cage sport lacks action.

A couple of reasons might be inadequate publicity by the local

Win First

Santa Ana had defeated Modesto in the first round, 76-67, but dropped a 69-62 decision to Los Angeles Valley College in the second round.

Prior to the Renegade tournament, the Dons were defeated in their season opener by the Alumni, 64-60, before trouncing Santa Monica, 60-43.

Forward Jon Brettman, All Eastern Conference second team last year, has been the big gun for the Dons both in the scoring department and on the boards.

High Man

Brettman, who sports a 18-point average, has been high man for Santa Ana in every game but one. He tallied 15 against the Alumni, 15 against Santa Monica, 20 against Modesto, 2 against LA Valley, and 12 against Stockton.

Other leading scorers for the Dons have been Gary Dutro (49 points in five games), Don Livingston (41 points in four games), Milt Horton (43 points in five games), and Phil Livesey (37 points in five games).

El Don has scored 330 points and has allowed 302.

SAC's Whittle Player of Year

Santa Ana College halfback Leroy Whittle was named the Eastern Conference Player of the Year it was announced this week.

Whittle was the EC's leader in both rushing and total offense this year as he led the Dons to a third place, 5-2 finish.

Two other Dons were also placed on the first string, tackle Tom Dallape, and center Ray Patscheck.

End Ray Ponce and fullback Ron Johnson, both from Garden Grove High, were second team selections for Santa Ana.

newspapers and possibly the fact that Los Angeles is simply football crazy. Example: 61,000 idiots braved a windy day and heavy traffic just to see the lowly Green Bay Packers play the lowlier LA Rams in a pro football game Sunday.

Explain that!

El Don Wrestlers Face San Bernardino

Still on the prowl for additional man power, wrestling coach George Farrier takes his Santa Ana Dons to San Bernardino next Thursday, Dec. 17 for a match with the heralded Indians.

The Dons will be out to make it two in a row after winning a match by forfeit from Riverside last week.

Farrier, an outstanding wrestler in his high school and college days, presently has six men on his squad.

Jerry Huhn, 177 pounds; Gene Hutchins, 147; Larry Keith, 123; Doug Lewis, 123; Raymond Lundin, 157; and Mike Rodriguez, 177, are the Don grapplers.

Myrel Moore Issues Call for Swimmers

All Santa Ana College students interested in trying out for the first swim team in Don history should see coach Myrel Moore, it was announced today.

Moore presently has eight swimmers and two divers ready for the season which starts March 2 at Mt. San Antonio College. However, he needs the services of several more boys in both categories.

Students should report to Moore anytime before Christmas vacation.

This year the new Don pool will host the three day Eastern Conference Championship Meet at the end of the swimming season.
